I am an international award-winning communications expert. For the last twenty years I have worked in the radio and entertainment industry, across the UK and Australia.

Before launching my own business in 2018, my most recent role was for Bauer City Network as Group Content Director, overseeing 22 radio stations, 3 networks and over 150 staff and freelancers across the north of England and Scotland. I was responsible for designing and directing Bauer's first response to the Manchester terror attacks in 2017.

During my career I have coached and mentored house-hold names, sports-stars, as well as fledgling presenters - mastering the art of affecting change in behaviours and driving growth, through simple, effective and world-class communication strategies.
